Group Term to Age 100 Life Insurance

Financial protection for those you love most

Think About This

44% of people would feel a financial impact within six months of losing their household's primary wage earner. 28% said they would be affected within just one month†

More than 40% of Americans with life insurance coverage wish they had purchased their policies at a younger age†

Over half of U.S. households rely on dual incomes (54%), and, for many, losing one income could be devastating to household finances ††

Dealing with an unexpected death is difficult enough – you don't want to leave behind overwhelming financial obligations as well. With Group Term Life Insurance coverage, your family can still realize all the goals and dreams you shared together.

Here's How It Works

- Select the coverage that's right for you and your family
- Then if you pass away, your beneficiary files a claim
- A lump-sum cash benefit payable by direct deposit or check can be used however they wish*

Protecting Your Finances

With planning, the death benefit can pass to your beneficiaries free from state or federal estate taxes. Consult with your tax advisor for specifics

Protecting insureds for over 60 years

Meeting Your Needs

- Guaranteed minimum death benefit is level for 5 years[1]
- Premiums are affordable and remain level to age 100 unless you make changes to your coverage
- Children may be covered*,[2]

†2020 Insurance Barometer Study, LIMRA. ††U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, Consumer Expenditure Survey, ibid. *Please refer to the Exclusions and Limitations section of this brochure. [1]Current non-guaranteed death benefit is projected to remain level to age 100. [2]Coverage for children may be limited to a percentage of the employee's face amount in some states.

Meet Rich

Choose

Rich signs up for Group Term to Age 100 Life Insurance with a Qualified Long Term Care Rider during his employer's Open Enrollment.

Use

Several months later, Rich suffers a stroke. Here's his story:

Enrollment

Rich enrolls in Group Term to Age 100 with a Long Term Care Rider during his annual benefits enrollment

Retirement

A few years later, he retires and continues to pay his monthly premiums directly to American Heritage Life

Illness

At the age of 75, he has a stroke and is admitted to the hospital. After seven days, he is discharged to go home

Assistance

Afterwards, he needs help with bathing and dressing, but doesn't want to put that burden on his family

Caregiver

He reviews his policy and rider coverage and determines that he will be able to afford at-home health care

Claim

Rich files a claim on his Group Term to Age 100 Life Insurance coverage with the Qualified Long Term Care Rider along with documentation from his doctor (see How to File a Claim on page 4) and chooses the Monthly Payment option. His claim is reviewed and his request is approved.

- After the 90-day waiting period, Rich begins receiving a percentage of his Group Term to Age 100 Life Insurance death benefit each month while receiving long-term care services.
- He can use the monthly payments to help pay for his long-term care expenses, such as caregivers in his home for four hours each day.
- The restoration of benefits feature of his Qualified Long Term Care Rider will automatically restore his death benefit to the pre-acceleration amount of his coverage prior to filing his claim.
- The extension of benefits feature of his Qualified Long Term Care Rider will also extend his monthly payments for each month that he continues to receive qualified long-term care services, up to the period equal to the original benefit term.

Here are some of the ways the monthly long-term care payment can be used

Finances

Can help eliminate the need to deplete savings or retirement plans, take out a loan, or rely on family members for care

Care

Can help pay for at-home health care, an adult day care center, a nursing care facility

Expenses

Can help pay for a doctor, registered nurse, or licensed practical nurse as well as meals, therapy, or room and board charges

The examples above detail fictional thought processes and needs; your individual needs and reasons for coverage may vary.

Why Group Term to Age 100 Life Insurance might be right for you

Have you ever experienced a life-changing event and worried that you would not have the finances in place to handle it if you lost your spouse? It may have crossed your mind, but you put it off because you did not want to think about the unthinkable. However, if you have a spouse, children, or even grandchildren, that is reason enough to think about planning for their future today. Here are some additional reasons to consider:

- You can't predict when you'll die, whether from a disease, accidental injury or natural causes. Upon your death, our coverage can provide a lump-sum cash benefit directly to your designated beneficiary
- You live on a budget, and purchasing traditional permanent life insurance would be costly. Our coverage is affordably priced
- You want a Term Life policy that offers coverage for more than 5, 10 or 20 years. This coverage can be with you until age 100
- You want affordable coverage that goes with you should you leave your employer. You can take the coverage with you; see your Certificate of Insurance for details
- Your family may need additional money to help with health care related bills after you die. Our coverage provides a lump-sum death benefit that can be used to help cover these expenses
- You're the primary wage earner and your family would have difficulty living without your income. If you die before age 100, our coverage offers your designated beneficiary a lump-sum death benefit that is guaranteed for the first five years of coverage and is priced to remain level under current experience factors
- You have recurring monthly debts such as a mortgage, car payment or credit cards. Our coverage provides a lump-sum death benefit that can be used to help cover monthly expenses
- You have children under 18, and they require money for daily living expenses such as food, clothing, school sports and college education. Our coverage provides a lump-sum death benefit that can be used to help with daily living expenses

Benefits

Group Term to Age 100 Life Insurance Provides:

Term Life Insurance Death Benefit - a lump-sum death benefit is payable to your designated beneficiary when you die before the certificate anniversary on or after you reach age 100

Qualified Long Term Care Rider Benefits (riders have exclusions and limitations)

Qualified Long Term Care with Restoration of Benefits and Extension of Benefits - when filing a claim, choose between a monthly advance of the death benefit or a lump-sum payment while receiving qualified long-term care services after a 90-day elimination period when certified chronically ill by a licensed health care practitioner (see the Death Benefit Amount and Chronically Ill Definitions on page 4).

- Monthly Payment - a monthly advance of 6% of the death benefit is payable for up to 17 months and 34 months with the extension of benefits
- Lump-Sum Payment - a one-time lump-sum death benefit is payable. Rider coverage will terminate upon payment of this benefit

The restoration benefit restores the death benefit to the pre-acceleration amounts, and the extension benefit extends the death benefit for a period equal to the original benefit term. The Lump-Sum Payment option is not available with the extension benefit

Realities of Long-Term Care Expenses

Long-term care is expensive, but there are many types of long-term care and a wide range of associated expenses. The most common type of long-term care is provided by a professional health aide in your own home at a cost of about $20 per hour.* Benefits provided by the rider can help cover those costs—and in most cases, at a much lower premium than traditional stand-alone long-term care insurance

Advantages of Qualified Long-Term Care Rider Coverage

- Rates are based on insured's age at the coverage effective date and are guaranteed not to change
- No separate evidence of insurability required for the rider
- Coverage is portable, meaning you can keep it after you retire or leave your employer

Rider Enhancements

- Non-Forfeiture Credit - available if the rider terminates due to non-payment of premium starting at the end of the third year. The paid-up credit is equal to the sum of all premiums paid for the rider or a one-time monthly payment of the monthly accelerated death benefit (whichever is greater), subject to the maximum remaining death benefit amount, and is payable while receiving qualified long-term care services. The restoration of accelerated death benefits and the monthly extension of accelerated death benefits are not available under this non-forfeiture benefit

Children's Term - a death benefit is paid when a covered child dies.

The riders have exclusions and limitations, may vary in availability by issue or termination age, and may not be available to all covered dependents or in all states. Additional premiums may be required for the riders added to the coverage. *Genworth Cost of Care Survey 2021, In-Home Care, Home Health Aide, hourly median costs, national.
