

For immediate release: March 15, 2021

Bridges Named EKPC Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer

WINCHESTER, Ky.— Ann Bridges has been named EKPC’s Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

“Ann brings a wealth of knowledge, skills and experience to this position, and I welcome her leadership and contributions,” said Tony Campbell, EKPC’s President & Chief Executive Officer.

“I look forward to serving as CFO for EKPC,” Bridges said. “I intend to put my utility experience and deep regard for the electric cooperative program to work for the benefit of EKPC’s member-owner cooperatives and the organization as a whole.”

Ann Bridges

Bridges has served as interim Executive Vice President and CFO since mid-December while a candidate search was ongoing.

She has previously served in several positions at EKPC, including Vice President of Strategic Planning and External Affairs; Director of Regulatory Services; Manager of Accounting; and Manager of Internal Auditing. She also served as Vice President of Corporate Services at Owen Electric Cooperative. Bridges is a Certified Public Accountant.

— END —

East Kentucky Power Cooperative is a not-for-profit, member-owned cooperative providing wholesale electricity to 16 owner-member distribution cooperatives that serve 1.1 million Kentucky residents at 545,000 homes, farms, businesses and industries across 87 counties. EKPC provides power through coal-fueled plants located in Mason and Pulaski counties; natural gas-fueled peaking units in Clark and Oldham counties; renewable energy plants in Barren, Boone, Clark, Laurel, Greenup, Hardin and Pendleton counties; and more than 2,800 miles of transmission lines. Together, EKPC and its 16 owner-member cooperatives are known as Kentucky's Touchstone Energy Cooperatives. Visit EKPC at www.ekpc.coop.

For more information, contact:

Nick Comer, External Affairs Manager
Office (general): (859) 744-4812, ext. 450
Office (direct): (859) 745-9450
Mobile: (859) 333-8735
nick.comer@ekpc.coop